

WHEELWRIGHT MUSEUM
OF THE
AMERICAN INDIAN

JOIN US FOR A VIRTUAL TOUR

FRIDAY, NOV. 20TH

6:00 PM

A Virtual Tour of the Museum

Artist Interview with Eliza Naranjo Morse

Preview of the short film "Laughter & Resilience: Humor in Native American Art"

LIVE STREAM

Live Stream on Los Alamos Public Schools Native American Parent and Student Council Facebook Page or LAPS Staff Facebook Page. Video will later be available for viewing on the NAPAC webpage: <https://laschools.net/napac/>

Founded in 1937, the Wheelwright Museum of the American Indian is New Mexico's oldest non-profit, independent museum. The Wheelwright offers unique exhibitions of contemporary and historic Native American art, and is famous for their focus on little-known genres and for solo shows by living Native American artists. They are the home of the Jim and Lauris Phillips Center for the Study of Southwestern Jewelry, the most comprehensive collection of Navajo and Pueblo jewelry in the world.

