

However Wide the Sky Places of Power

A FILM BY SILVER BULLET PRODUCTIONS
NARRATED BY TANTOO CARDINAL

From IMDB: The history and spirituality of the Indigenous People of the American Southwest are deeply rooted in the Land. Since the beginning of time, they have been stewards and protectors of their home lands, past and present.

Please join us for a screening of the Emmy nominated “However Wide The Sky: Places of Power” and a conversation with Silver Bullet Productions CEO, Pam Pierce.

For more information on the film see their website: silverbulletproductions.com

WHEN:
Tuesday, Nov. 29, 2022
6pm - 8pm

WHERE:
SALA Event Center
2551 Central Ave
Los Alamos, NM 87544

CONTACT:
Julie Dare
j.dare@laschools.net

Please RSVP by scanning the code below or by email (j.dare@laschools.net).

This event is sponsored by the Los Alamos Public Schools Native American Parent Advisory Council and the Los Alamos High School Native American Culture Club with a grant from the LANL Foundation.